

Latour Presents Agri's Strategic Vision

Dr. Mickey Latour, dean, Agriculture, was a recent guest author for Talk Business and Politics. LaTour summarized the College of Agriculture's strategic vision for the state workforce, explaining its plan that is built around a defining theme of "Experiencing Agriculture Beyond the Classroom." He cited the college's partnership with Arkansas Hunters Feeding the Hungry, which helps address childhood food insecurity, entrepreneurial experiences for students, and the Agriculture Academy for leadership development.
