The PLATO® Web Learning Network is designed to help students prepare for the CORE Academic Skills for Educators and some Praxis II exams. However, participation in the program in no way guarantees a student will pass the exam. The program will provide valuable instruction and feedback when used correctly. PLATO® Web Learning Network provides browser-based PLATO® instructional content, assessments and instructions management 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Students participating in the program agree to the following:

1. Each participant must be familiar with basic Windows operating system. The PLATO® Simulated Test System is supported by Internet Explorer 6.0 and higher and most other Internet providers. The lab located in the Education/Communication Building Room 213 is open Monday-Friday from 8:00 am-5:00 pm. PLATO® may be used on any computer (on or off campus) with Internet access.
2. There is no cost to register for the PLATO® Web Learning Network.
3. When you register in the PEP, ED/COMM 213, you will be given login information. This must NOT be shared with anyone.
4. There is no limit to the total number of sessions a student may access. You will be given a limited duration of use; with the account being disabled upon expiration or for inactivity.
5. Any violation of the rules (lab or program) will result in the forfeiture of future PLATO® use and student will be deleted from the ASU group.
